

THE CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART

Public Information Department, 11150 East Blvd., Cleveland, Ohio 44106; 216/421-7340

PRESS RELEASE

THE CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART MAY CALENDAR OF EVENTS

ADDITION TO CALENDAR

Please add the following event to your publication's May listings.

Symposium

"American Originals: Furniture Designs 1870-1915"
Lectures on furniture designers of the American Arts and Crafts movement
Saturday, May 16, 10:00 am to 3:30 pm

10:00 to 11:00 am	Richard H. Randall, Jr., former director, The Walters Art Gallery, Baltimore "Little-Known Furniture Designs of H. H. Richardson"
11:00 am to noon	Michael James, specialist in American Arts and Crafts Period "Charles Rohlfs: The Man and His Work"
1:30 to 2:30 pm	David Gebhard, architectural historian, University of California, Santa Barbara "The Craftsman Aesthetic Refined: The Furniture of George Grant Elmslie"
2:30 to 3:30 pm	David A. Hanks, author and President of David A. Hanks and Associates, New York City, author "Frank Lloyd Wright: Furniture Integral to Architecture"

Reservations for the symposium are limited, and must be placed by Wednesday, May 13. The admission fee of $25 ($20 for Museum members) includes lunch. Full-time students may register free of charge but will not be provided with lunch. For a registration form or further information, call the Museum at 216/421-7340, ext. 413.

Additional information on the symposium is included in the attached news release.

#